OUR FRONT COVER
Saint Patrick Parish, Watertown

This beautiful church of St. Patrick in Watertown began in the early 1890's by Father Robert Stack, Pastor. It was completed in 1901 with the laying of the cornerstone by Archbishop Williams. Designed by architect Egbert G. Bullard, the church was constructed by Norcross Company Builders of Boston, MA at a cost of $100,000.00.

This handsome edifice replaced the humble church which had served the parishioners of St. Patrick Parish since the cornerstone was laid on September 27, 1847 by Most Rev. John B. Fitzpatrick, Bishop of Boston, located on Church Hill, the original site of the parish. It became the Parish Hall until 1988.

Father John Cullen, succeeded the original builder of St. Patrick Church and brought the project to completion by raising the necessary funds.

With the opening of the new Church, in 1901 the colonization came to a close. The original building on Church Hill Street became a Parish Hall and the main altar and the two side altar shrines from the old Church and the organ were moved to the lower church of the new St. Patrick.

So began a new era of growth of the venerable Parish which celebrates one hundred and fifty years of grace in 1997.

This is the Mother Church of many parishes in the West Region of the Archdiocese which is under the direction of Bishop Emilio Allue, Auxiliary of Boston and Regional Bishop of the West Region.

OUR BACK COVER
Chapel of Our Lady of the Airways, Boston

Our Lady of the Airways Chapel at Logan International Airport is the center of a busy ministry to passengers, employees and visitors. This ministry began when on February 2, 1947 Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, came to "Logan Field" to celebrate Mass. The present chapel, which seats nearly 200, was made possible by contributions from airport employees as well as private donors.

The Chapel offers many services to its unique community. In addition to maintaining a regular Catholic presence, the chaplaincy offers five weekend Masses for the convenience of the 15,000 airport employees, as well as countless travelers and visitors. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is regularly available and on Wednesday Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is scheduled. There are also two weekly meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous.

During the week, the Chaplain can be found walking through the airport's public and restricted areas attending to the spiritual needs of both employees and visitors. The desire to celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation before a trip, the look of a friendly face and familiar smile in the midst of a very hectic and busy work environment, the strength gathered from a kind word or a bit of spiritual advice are all aspects of this unique ministry. Any form of transportation can have its risks, so the chaplains must also be ready to respond to any crisis situations. Meeting the bereaved and offering a word of consolation are important aspects of the chaplain's service.

The Chapel is location between Terminals B and C on the ground level of the Tower Building. It is easily accessible for the physically challenged and can be reached by public transportation (MBTA Blue to Airport Station; then Massport Shuttle Bus Routes 11 or 22). Chaplains may be reached at 617-567-2800.

Protect The Family Tree.

Protecting Catholic families since 1879

Over One Hundred Years Ago . . . .

in Boston, a few devoted Catholic families planted the seed of a new idea, a fraternal insurance society for mutual protection and social benefit. Since then, with the help of God, the seed grew and became a tree and the tree grew and became a forest. To demonstrate the need to protect and preserve the Family Tree in those days of many privations, the founders called the Society the Catholic Association of Foresters. To protect the Family Tree is still the Society's central purpose.

Life insurance protection is one way the Society fulfills the needs of its members. Equally important are the social, spriritual, educational and charitable activities participated in by members and their families.

How about you and your family? We will be glad to receive your call and to furnish you with all the details of membership and insurance.

Please write or call our Home Office at the address below.

SULLIVAN ELECTRONICS

(Sullivan Sound Systems)

We are entering our thirtieth year of service to the Archdiocese of Boston. Our staff consists of degreed electronic engineers, technicians and licensed electricians, who have been teaching electronics, electricity and acoustics for many years. We have over TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED INSTALLATIONS in churches, schools, colleges, parish centers auditoriums, and playing fields throughout the dioceses of Boston, Worcester, Manchester, Portland, Newark, New York, and Tampa. In 1996, we completed over 100 church and school installations.

When we design your system, it is not a copy of another system which has been used over and over again. It is as different from our other church designs as your church is from all the others.

61 Years of Quality

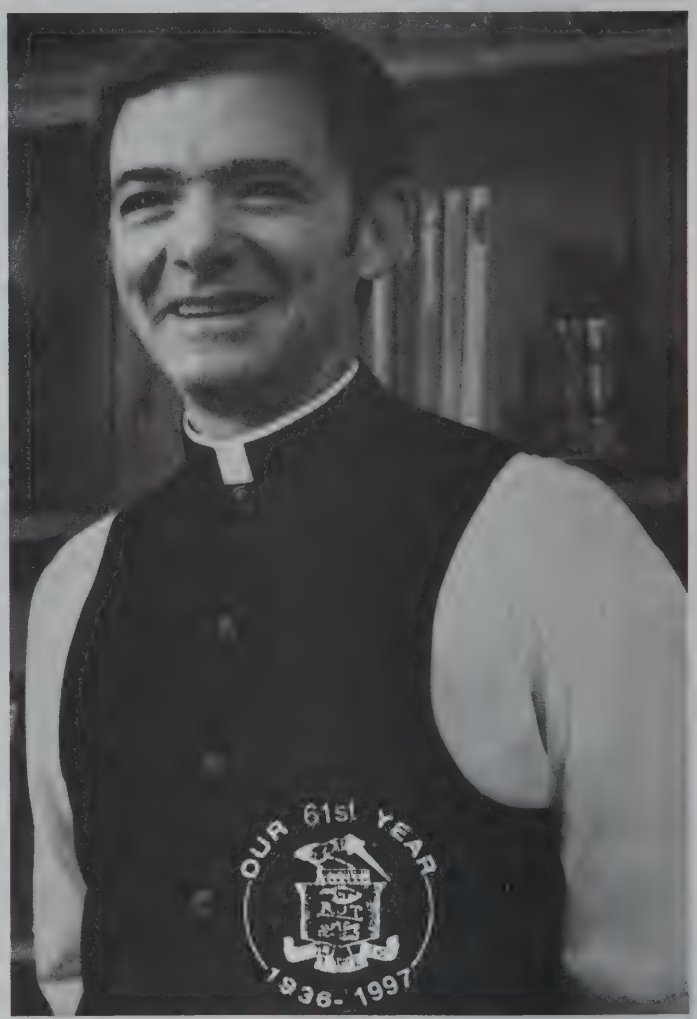

Thanks to you, we're celebrating our 61st Anniversary at the

R.J. TOOMEY COMPANY.

It all began in 1936, during the depression, with two revolutionary ideas to design and manufacture ready made apparel for the clergy and altar boys. Two generations have been devoted to this very idea that has continued the fine reputation for superior quality and service. Look to the

for the most complete inventory of clerical and altar boy apparel or visit one of the fine establishments in the New England area that represent our line. . . Thanks to you. . . we're CELEBRATING!

Since 1937, Boston Chimney and Tower has been erecting chimneys, towers and steeples. And handling building renovation projects large and small.

We're a full service, family owned company, offering everything from preliminary surveys to tuckpointing, waterproofing, painting, caulking, roofing, chemical cleaning, and much more.

We're proud of our track record of excellence. And especially proud of the many projects we've completed for the Archdiocese of Boston. If you're considering a project, or need help in planning, please call Ron Plante today.

"We will give you a free estimate for tuning, repairs or rebuilding. Chances are that your parish doesn't know what condition your pipe organ is in. There are far too many pipe organs that have been neglected over the years. We are taking fine care of the organs in the churches we serve. You can get involved in our maintenance program also. A tonal change or addition can do wonders to brighten up the voices of the organ." Bob Morel, owner

BOSTON CATHOLIC DIRECTORY

Dear Directory User,

At the Eighth Synod of the Archdiocese, celebrated in 1988, the document Pastoral Plan for Mission was promulgated. At that time personnel, offices and agencies were asked by the Synod to review, revise, or renew various aspects of their particular ministry. The Synod asked for "review and improvement in the format of the Boston Catholic Directory and promotion of its broader use within and outside the Archdiocese." We have prepared this flyer to inform you of our attempts to meet this expectation.

First, there is this cover letter. Our office has compiled a report about the composition, distribution and financing of other directories in the United States. Next, there is a one page overview introducing the major changes in the 1997 edition, and finally, there is advance information about pricing and billing through 1999 and suggestions for sales and distribution. As you see, our excellent product is a bargain.

In the past several years small and tentative steps have been taken in this revision process. This year you will see major changes throughout the book. Immediately you should notice that we have expanded the number of pages and the size of the print. Upon a cursory review you will notice several new advertisers who have joined our faithful renewals.

A more careful reading of the book, beginning with the expanded index again at the start of the book, reveals several new features, expansion of the pages for parish listings, and a reorganization of the book along the general lines of the organization of the Church herself and the Archdiocese of Boston in specific.

We suggest that the key to 'broader use' is the index. If you consult that section first, you should be directed to the more detailed information you are seeking in the book.

As always, please feel free to call, write or fax us with suggestions for improvements we might consider for future editions. Please patronize our advertisers and mention the Directory to them. They help keep the Directory a reasonably priced and valuable tool.

We are grateful for your support and your assistance in making the Directory more widely known and used within and outside the Archdiocese.

Comparative Report
Other Arch/diocesan Directories

In 1995 the staff of the Boston Catholic Directory conducted an informal survey of thirty other arch/dioceses which have annual directories. The chart above gives a statistical picture of various directories who responded to the survey. Boston is listed first in both sets of comparative figures. The first set is a sample of responses from directories outside New England, the second set within New England. The immediate observation is that our excellent product, is of substantial size, well supported by return and new advertisers, has a large subscription base and is a real bargain.

There is very little uniformity in what information is contained, how it is organized and in what order it appears. It is safe to observe that from most of the returns we received and from the directories we have in our library the following information seems to be basic.

Parishes: names, addresses, phone and fax numbers, Personnel (at least Pastor, parochial vicars, other resident priests, permanent deacons. Less frequently Religious Education, Music and other Personnel. Schedules for Masses (Sunday or other appear in 15 of the 30). While data for other sacraments and sacramentals e.g. Baptisms, Reconciliation, Adoration appear in 5 of 30. Listings of Schools frequently included not only names, address, etc., but principal's name.

Every directory contains a listing of diocesan personnel, offices and their staff, addresses and phone and fax numbers. More and more e-mail addresses appear. In the listing of individuals (our colored pages) at least the names, addresses and phone numbers are listed for bishops, priests, deacons, religious women and men. Often there is additional information, e.g. date of ordination, date of birth, date of beginning of present assignment, etc.

The directory is meant to be a tool to help make communication and collaboration among and between people, parishes, agencies and institutions easier and more frequent. We want to make it better. Let us know how it might better serve you and your needs. We can't guarantee everything, but we will try.

Introducing the 1997 Edition

Expansion and change: two characteristics which will be obvious to our veteran users. Before you look at the directory, please read this page which has been prepared to help you get the maximum use from your Directory.

General layout: All the white pages are together. They are followed by the colored pages: women religious on pink pages; bishops and priest on blue, deacons and religious brothers on green and advertisers listings on yellow. Additional pages have been added to these sections allowing for an increase in type size, better layout and easier use. The yellow pages will now contain advertisers listings, in some sense paralleling other directories where 'yellow pages' feature advertisers.

Section I: This section contains information about the church at various levels (international, national, diocesan) Here for example is information about the Pope, the Conference of Bishops, The Cardinal and the auxiliary bishops, the curia and various central offices and agencies, the statistical summary, map and organizational charts.

Section II: This section begins with a guide page and contains the parishes, chapels, shrines, other churches, parishes of Eastern Catholic churches, suppressed/merged parishes, and parish statistics. This section has been substantially enlarged, a new and larger type style has been used.

Section III: This section begins with a guide page and it gives an overview of the contents. We have reorganized all the material, old or new, in the directory. Many ways could be used, but to see the relationship between and among agencies and offices, as well as related material, we thought it best to follow, in a very general way, the present cabinet structure of the archdiocese. It is not exactly according to that structure, but generally.

If, for example, you are looking for anything that is related to education and it is listed in this directory, go first to the alphabetical index at the beginning of the book and you will find a reference to a page in the education section. If you browse throughout the section you will then become familiar very quickly with the organization of education in the archdiocese, seeing not only what is 'officially' part of education but what may be related to education though not a direct responsibility of that cabinet secretary.

The section on Ministerial Personnel contains much information about its offices and agencies, pictures of the Silver and Golden Jubilarian priests, as well as the information and pictures of the ordination classes from the two major seminaries.
